

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Magee, 155 Melbourne St, east have received information that their son Trooper Leonard Magee, who was reported missing some weeks ago, is now reported as officially killed in action. He was one of "Monyts' Corps and was one of the Canadians to take part in the spearhead of the invasion in France. He was reported as missing on June 11th.

Trooper Leonard Magee was a wireless operator with the Tank unit. He received his early training at Peterboro and Camp Borden where he was with the Grey and Simcoe Regiment. He was then transferred to the 6th Canadian Armored Regiment, 1st Hussars. He was overseas one year.

Another son, Donald, who is only 19, is also in uniform. He enlisted with the tank corp and is now with the infantry.

Leonard Magee was well known to many in Lindsay. He attended the East Ward School and was quite popular with teachers and fellow students.

Mrs. Magee was formerly a Miss Dobson, a daughter of the late Hugil Dobson.
