History.

In first week of October 1916 at Bramshott Camp while on a review playing in the Band - he caught his foot and fell on the left knee on a tree stump. The knee was painful and somewhat swollen but he marched back and reported to M.O. He received treatment & bandage and carried on until Nov 19th 1916. although knee was giving a great deal of pain. On Nov 19th 1916 was admitted to Hospital was in bed for a week and on crutches for a month.

At present there is very little swelling. No limitation of movement - and only disability appears on doing double knee bend when some discomfort is noticed.
