Dear Sir,

You have in the Hospital Private Oliver George Brown, No. 724725, 20th Canadians, B.F.F., Ward 1, D.E. This man's people live in the village close to us here and he is not unnaturally very anxious to get back amongst his own kith and kin. The Commandant of the Standish Hospital, near Stonehouse, which is only a short distance away, has, in reply to my application, said that she is prepared to take him in if you are willing to send him. May I, under the circumstances, ask you to be good enough to give the necessary permission.

Believe me,

Yours faithfully,
