SPECIAL ISSUE OF THE DAILY ECHO

Halifax, 4th of March, 1916.

On the 4th of March, 1916, the Halifax Daily Echo published a special issue listed as "Special Sixty-Fourth Battalion Number". It is interesting to note some of the things they say about the 64th.

"The story of the 64th Battalion in Halifax has been one of pleasure both for the people of the City and for the soldiers themselves. Hard work and close attention to duty has always been the key-note of the 64th with officers and men alike. Lt. Col. Campbell is a firm believer in hard work, and is up in the morning before six o'clock to start his day's work. He has paid the closest attention to the welfare of his men, both in housing and feeding, and sees that his officers look after the men in their charge. The result has been that Col. Campbell is respected and admired by every officer and man in the battalion."

High Standing of Officers

"One could hardly imagine a finer body of officers than those of the 64th Battalion; everyone is thoroughly equipped for his work, is imbued with the military spirit and has the confidence of his men. Other battalions have come to the 64th when in need of officers, as witness the transfer of Capt. W.E. Forbes to become commanding officer of the 145th Battalion; Capt. R. H. Campbell to take command of the 105th; Capt. L. C. Carey to Major in the 145th; Capt. J. G. Kirkpatrick to the 115th; Lieut. R. W. Churchill to the 112th; Lieut. A. Macdonald to the 85th; Lieut. H. B. Clarke to the Pioneer Corps; and Lieut. R. McL. Armstrong to the 104th."

The Rank and File

"The rank and file of the 64th are men of splendid physique, earnest men, trained and eager to get to the front. That they

24th Battalion
Victoria Rifles of Canada (Montreal)

Printed in July 1956 at
The Industrial Shops for the Deaf,
65 De Castelnau St. West,
Montreal, P.Q., Canada.

So, the 64th Battalion lived and worked together from August, 1915, to June, 1916, and then passed on to play their full part in the great game. Of the approximately one thousand all ranks who left Halifax on April 1, 1916, two hundred and forty-three died on active service for King and Country.

 24th Battalion
 Victoria Rifles of Canada (Montreal)

There were many who were singled out to receive awards for gallantry in the field during the two years and more of fighting. The writer of this little history has made what efforts he could to discover who might have been the most — decorated man of the 64th, and it seems that this honour might well be claimed by 469861 William F. Gauld, who gave his home address as Truro, N.S. when he was attested to battalion strength on the 2nd of September, 1915. Bill Gauld, long and stringy and very young when he first came to my attention in Sussex, went to the 24th Battalion of Montreal in France, and rose to the rank of Company Quartermaster Sergeant, winning the Distinguished Conduct Medal and the Military Medal and a Mention in Despatches. He was an extremely popular member of his unit, and the 24th
